VILLA PAMELA

CAPRI TOWN, CAPRI

Villa Pamela is a resplendent hillside sanctuary poised above Capri Town, where terraced gardens unfold toward boundless views of whitewashed rooftops, soaring limestone cliffs and the sapphire Tyrrhenian Sea. Nearly an acre of private grounds ensures utmost discretion, while the celebrated Piazzetta, the couture boutiques of Via Camerelle and the island's most storied tables lie moments away. Villa Pamela offers headfirst immersion into the timeless glamor of Capri.

Interiors present a refined dialogue between Mediterranean grace and curated old-world elegance, where luminous white walls and sea-blue accents frame gilt-framed paintings, antique dressing tables and sculptural coral pieces. The salon invites lingering on sumptuous white sofas beside a fireplace, its windows drinking in the island light. A glass-topped dining table set against library shelves hosts candlelit soirees, while the gourmet kitchen frames Capri like a living painting. Six bedrooms accommodate twelve guests in utmost comfort and discretion, each a serene cocoon of fine linens and cerulean hues, many opening onto private balconies suspended above the sea. Bathrooms are appointed with jetted soaking tubs, polished granite and classical Greek key detailing, offering a private ritual of indulgence.

Villa Pamela comes to its fullest expression outdoors, where a glittering pool framed by hand-laid pebble mosaics and plush sun loungers commands panoramic views across the island to the sea. A stone-walled lounge offers shaded repose beside the water, while a pergola terrace sets the stage for long, sun-dappled lunches beneath the cliffs. As evening falls, the outdoor kitchen, BBQ and pizza oven come alive, with music drifting through fragrant gardens as Capri glows below.
