VILLA BIANCA

SAN TEODORO, SARDINIA

Villa Bianca is an elegant coastal retreat set within the prestigious Puntaldia Resort in Sardinia, moments from the crystalline shoreline and the charming atmosphere of San Teodoro. Framed by manicured landscapes and Mediterranean vegetation, the property enjoys a privileged position close to some of the island's most celebrated beaches, where turquoise waters meet soft white sand. The surrounding area is defined by understated luxury, tranquility, and natural beauty, with nearby golf courses, marinas, and refined dining options contributing to an exclusive yet relaxed coastal lifestyle.

The interior of Villa Bianca is designed to embody luxurious living through light, space, and refined simplicity. The living room area serves as the heart of the home, characterized by generous proportions, soft neutral tones, and seamless transitions between indoor comfort and the surrounding landscape. Large openings allow natural light to flood the space, enhancing the sense of calm and elegance throughout. Adjacent to the living area, the kitchen is thoughtfully arranged to combine functionality with style, offering modern appliances and clean lines that support both everyday living and effortless entertaining. Completing the interior layout, the villa accommodates six well-appointed bedrooms, each conceived to provide privacy, comfort, and a serene retreat after sun-filled days.

The exterior of Villa Bianca is equally compelling, curated for open-air living and relaxation. Expansive terraces invite moments of quiet reflection or convivial gatherings, while the swimming pool forms a central focal point, harmonizing with the surrounding greenery. Outdoor lounge and dining areas are positioned to take full advantage of Sardinia's mild climate, creating a natural extension of the interior spaces. Together, these outdoor elements shape a refined sanctuary where elegance, comfort, and the Mediterranean landscape coexist in perfect balance.
