BIG ISLAND

HAPUNA BEACH

The tallest sea mountain and the biggest volcano in the world are found on the Island of Hawaii, also known as the Big Island. Visitors spending their vacations here should really take at least week to travel around to get a good picture of what Big Island living is all about. Huge mountains take the spotlight in the scenery and cut through the island landscape riddled with delicate orchids. Big Island features eight of the world's 13 bio-zones, with spots ranging from arid desert to polar tundra on the winter mountain caps. Its waters are alive with amazing sea life such as manta rays, dolphins, and sea turtles. Big Island hosts a number of festivals, including everything from a coffee festival to a national marathon to rodeos, and film festivals. It just depends on what kind of vacation travelers are wanting to experience. In any case, Big Island is an ideal location for the adventurer in all luxury vacationers.
