EMERALD PAVILION

LEEWARD, TURKS AND CAICOS

Emerald Pavilion is a luminous contemporary sanctuary set directly on the powdery white sands of Leeward, where soaring palms frame boundless vistas over the glittering turquoise shallows of Providenciales. A long reflecting pool draws the eye from the villa's gleaming facade straight to the sea, creating a breathtaking sense of arrival. Tranquil and private yet a short drive from Grace Bay's acclaimed dining, this Turks and Caicos luxury vacation rental is a true island hideaway.

Pristine white interiors are the perfect canvas for barefoot elegance, where natural teak, stacked stone and driftwood sculptures add organic warmth. Open-air living pavilions flow onto the terraces, while a light-filled living room with plush white sofas faces the palms and sea. A floating timber staircase rises beside a textured stone wall, and the formal dining room welcomes a crowd on slipcovered chairs beneath a glass pendant. The sleek white kitchen features a walnut-edged island with bar seating. Spanning 6,000 sq.ft., the villa offers seven bedrooms accommodating fourteen guests in utmost comfort and discretion, dressed in crisp whites and ocean blues, including a whimsical aqua loft bedroom. One bathroom frames a freestanding soaking tub against a private stone-walled garden. A navy-hued media room and a sunlit gym complete the roster of amenities.

Emerald Pavilion comes to its fullest expression outdoors, where a heated infinity pool lined with submerged loungers stretches toward a beachside cabana. Lounge terraces, a fire pit and a hot tub invite sun-soaked afternoons and starlit evenings, while an outdoor kitchen with a BBQ sets the scene for al fresco feasts. Bicycles and shared tennis and pickleball courts beckon the active, and beach loungers await just steps from the water.
