Bearing the prestigious title of the largest private resort with beachside access in the entire region, this coveted estate is tuned to the highest caliber of Italian coastal highlife living.

Nineteenth-century aristocratic prestige and dazzling Mediterranean panache meet their apex in this stately 10,000 sq. ft residence. Pristine expansive common spaces are smattered with gorgeously furnished period furnishings and one-of-a-kind tableaus. With a wealth of shared spaces, Villa Lilly presents gorgeous salons with a regal billiard table flanked by exceptional arched windows. Historical intrigue, high culture luxury, and a delectable ambiance of seaside reverie define this glorious estate, consisting of a primary residence and two guest homes. AMALFI COAST

PRAIANO

Just a short jaunt from Naples, the Amalfi Coast is a gorgeous destination on the southwestern coast of Italy. It runs for about 25 miles, starting in the famous town of Positano and ending in the small village of Vietri Sul Mare. Although quite scenic, the drive from Naples along Amalfi Coast involves hairpin bends and zigzag turns on cliff edges while the altitude may make your ears pop. Notwithstanding, the coast is a cornucopia of whitewashed villages, lemon groves, and glittering water, this majestic beauty offering plenty of reasons to visit Italy. It is an evergreen setting for films, still photos, and postcards. Known for its understated sophistication and timeless beauty, the Amalfi Coast is a heavenly place that has escaped modernization, retaining its historic palazzos, lush gardens, simple pastel-hued fishing villages, pristine beaches, and rocky shorelines. Awe-inspiring beauty is matched with outstanding terroir and natural beauty setting the scene for a full-bodied summer wine odyssey. Savor the landscapes as you would as you would a fine Piediroso,, indulge in the unbeatable cuisine, and truly enjoy life to the fullest.
