VILLA HALE NANA KOHOLA

PUAKO, BIG ISLAND

Villa Hale Nana Kohola is a stunning tropical estate abounding with Bali-style exoticism on the Kohola coast. Easily amongst the most exceptional Big Island residences, the Villa is embraced by lush palm trees and picturesque Hawaiian umbrella trees extending to a private stretch of pristine white sands.

Redefining luxury residential living, Villa Hale Nana Kohola blurs the distinction between indoor and outdoor spaces with majestic soaring lanais. Magnificent double-height vaulted ceilings define glorious wood interiors, presenting the epitome of beachside breeziness and open-concept living. Chic vintage-styled furnishings blend with antique pieces inflected with colonial prestige, curating a youthful and exotic ambiance. A gorgeous great room is conceived for spontaneity and celebration, lined with an extensive bar counter, flowing seamlessly into the alluring outdoor grill areas. This tropical residence abounds in open common spaces integrating the lush outdoors, the sea breeze, and heady tropical aromas, a constant companion to choicely furnished interiors. Villa Hale Nana Kohola offers four spacious and luxuriously appointed bedrooms, accommodating up to 8 guests, with the added convenience of an extra queen Murphy bed located in the media room.

The tropical paradise of the outdoors is outfitted with a reflective heated infinity pool and sumptuous loungers. A canopy of tropical foliage embraces versatile outdoor seating and alfresco dining areas, as well as a treadmill. The estate's "whale watching tower" offers the ultimate vantage point with far-reaching 360-degree views. Wondrous resort-style exteriors delineate a private garden of Eden, rounding off one of Hawaii's most revered luxury vacation rentals.

BIG ISLAND

PUAKO

The tallest sea mountain and the biggest volcano in the world are found on the Island of Hawaii, also known as the Big Island. Visitors spending their vacations here should really take at least week to travel around to get a good picture of what Big Island living is all about. Huge mountains take the spotlight in the scenery and cut through the island landscape riddled with delicate orchids. Big Island features eight of the world's 13 bio-zones, with spots ranging from arid desert to polar tundra on the winter mountain caps. Its waters are alive with amazing sea life such as manta rays, dolphins, and sea turtles. Big Island hosts a number of festivals, including everything from a coffee festival to a national marathon to rodeos, and film festivals. It just depends on what kind of vacation travelers are wanting to experience. In any case, Big Island is an ideal location for the adventurer in all luxury vacationers.
