VILLA CIELITO DEL MAR

CABO SAN LUCAS, CABO

Villa Cielito del Mar is an iconic, two-acre estate nestled into the rocks of Chileno Bay Cove. Designed by famed mid-twentieth-century architect Cliff May, the luxury vacation rental has since been updated to the highest standards of beauty and comfort. This stunning residence is thoroughly embedded into the rocky coastline offering a masterwork of palapa shaded exoticism and beach-chic elegance. A getaway like no other, Villa Cielito del Mar teems with secluded, serene hideaways and boasts a private stretch of coastline.

Aesthetically immaculate interiors present an enchanting mix of bohemian, desert-chic elegance, and postmodern panache. A great room presents an astounding marriage of sleek vertices, whitewashed walls, romantic native stone pillars, and Fleetwood glass walls. The free-flowing living space is conceived to facilitate congregation and socializing, with bespoke deep-seated sectionals garnished with whimsy and color. Glossy varnished natural wood console tables, textured stone accent walls, and oversized vases embellish the space with a timeless naturalistic character. Playful contemporary paintings dazzle with a Latin verve, offering a gorgeous pop of color to a magnificent palette of beige wood and terracotta. An innovative floor plan navigates through a gourmet kitchen, marble baths, and flagstone floors. The Cabo luxury rental's bedrooms are plush and just as beautifully decorated, each offering a lavish ensuite bath, with quick access to the outdoor gardens and pool deck.

Unmatched resort-like exteriors present a wealth of shaded and unshaded spaces ideally suited for lackadaisical sunbathing and socializing. Seating arrangements exceed the glamor of the Riviera's most lavish beach clubs, with a gorgeous free-form pool embraced by alluring sun loungers and parasols. A sleek walk bridge navigates over the pool to stairs leading to a private slice of beach.
