VILLA BERNADINE

ANTIBES, CANNES

Villa Bernadine is a spellbinding residence immersed in Belle Epoque flair, lauded for its unequivocal sea views. Oriental ornamentation garnishes the iconic facade imparting an alluring exotic aura to the stately residence. Prestigiously poised, this luxury vacation rental boasts secluded private access to the sandy beaches of Juan Les Pins, while a mere twenty-minute drive separates guests from the bustle of Cannes.

The magnificent interiors of Villa Bernandine present a master of impressions where guests are greeted with glorious open spaces and an impressively landscaped lot upon entering the grounds. The award-winning interior designers of this gorgeous Villa have captured a distinct atmosphere of grandeur and intimacy. An ultra-chic living room dazzles in postmodern elegance, a delectable splash of orange enlivening low-profile seating arrangements perfected in haute couture elegance. Diverse textures grace a one-of-a-kind breakfast nook and dining area graced with glossy reflective cabinetry, cheeky modern art, and plush velour upholstery. The custom-designed kitchen comes from the vision of acclaimed designer Nicholas Anthony Knightsbridge of London, supplying the space with Poggenpohl's finest creations. Tailormade drawers and electrically operated remote control panels offer an utterly customizable stay, with color, lighting, temperature, and media controls providing maximum space versatility. Four sumptuous ensuite bedrooms doused in cosmopolitan glamor offer the utmost comfort and discretion for up to eight discerning guests, while a separate studio is there for any staff you might need.

The lavish outdoors highlight the Riveria's natural splendor embraced by lush flora and impeccable lawns. A focal attraction of this majestic Cannes luxury vacation rental is the magnificent 160-foot heated pool replete with a spa and fountain.
