MAKING THE IMPOSSIBLE POSSIBLE

When the going gets tough, LVH goes shopping! We bend over backwards to see to your every request and need. Impressions do matter and when you can't find what you're looking for to make a statement, put it on our shoulders. One of our clients had to have a limited edition, sold out Hermes bag – impossible to come by – but we got it and arranged for delivery from London to Miami. "Impossible" is not in the LVH vocabulary.

SURPRISE! WORLD-CLASS BIRTHDAY BASHES

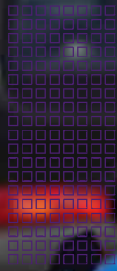

On one occasion, we went to bat for one of our guests vacationing in the Bahamas. The guest wanted to have an unforgettable party and had some desires for making that a reality. We connected with the famous DJ based in New York our guest requested and we flew the DJ to the party venue where he performed his spinning magic. In addition, we lined up other exclusive entertainers such as hula dancers. We turned our guest's desires into reality in 48 hours! No request you have is too large. At LVH, we can work wonders!

NEVER WAIT IN LINE AGAIN

We're magicians when it comes to securing sold out tickets for high level events. We've obtained tickets to exclusive events like the Oscars, amfAR, Gala nights, the Grammy and Emmy awards, polo matches, Formula 1 races, and many other theatrical, cultural, musical and sporting events.

THE IN-CROWD IS HERE

LVH can secure the most popular places in town, especially restaurants. Let LVH take care of the legwork by securing the best views, tables and private rooms for your outings, while maintaining your privacy. We secure some of the most difficult seats in the house, just for you – Carbone in Manhattan, Nobu in Malibu, Stockholm's Nola, Pujol in Mexico City and Heartwood in Tulum, Mexico.

FLOWERS & DECORATIONS

WHEN WORDS ARE NOT ENOUGH

Often the best way of conveying a sentiment is through one of nature's loveliest bounties – flowers. But when that sentiment has to leave no doubt, a dozen red roses, although beautiful, may not be special enough. When money is not a consideration and the only thing you want to do is take someone's breath away, get in touch with us and we will get right on it like we did for a very special event that needed cascades of perfect flowers worth $25,000, which we delivered right on time amidst audible oohs and aaahs.

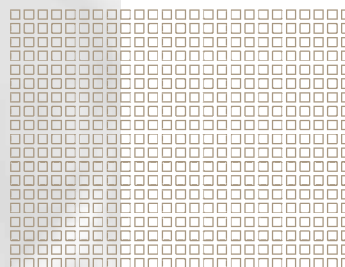

DINE OUT AT HOME

Are you a foodie, have a passion for cooking, or simply enjoy delectable food? Whether you want in-home private lessons from the world's best chefs or simply to watch masters at work in your own kitchen, we can secure five-star chefs for your learning, watching or dining pleasure. These well-known masters of cuisine will take your palates on a culinary excursion. Just let us know what you're craving and we'll arrange the rest.

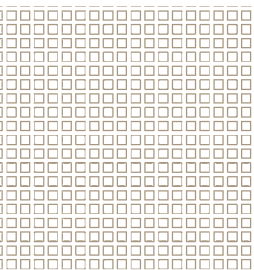

A SOMMELIER GIVES LESSONS IN TASTE

If you enjoy wine, but you're just getting your feet wet about which vintages go with what foods or how one red differs from another and so on, you would enjoy learning some tips from an expert sommelier. When one of our guests put in a call for an expert in wine – someone with formal training to be able to specialize in all aspects of wine service, wine and food pairings, and wine storage – we immediately sought out one of the best sommeliers in the industry. From beginners to wine aficionados our Sommeliers provide expertise to your level of knowledge.

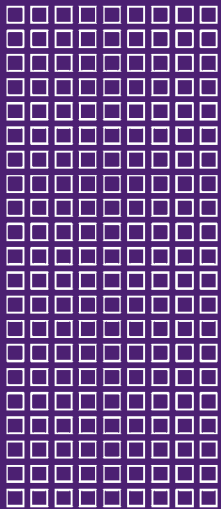

ARRIVE IN STYLE

Whenever one of our clients expresses a desire, it is our express mission to make it happen. In this case, our client – a fan of exclusive, exotic cars – wanted to reach his villa in style after flying luxuriously in a private jet. Our extensive purveyors of exotic vehicles met him at the airport with not one, but four jaw-dropping vehicles to choose from, one of which was a McLaren. We've also whirled clients away from the Big Apple to the Hamptons in a helicopter, bypassing highway gridlocks, while flying in comfort. Or if the Bahamas is on your radar, just give us a nod and we'll get you there in a pleasant private seaplane.
