LA DATCHA COURCHEVEL

COURCHEVEL 1850 CHENUS, COURCHEVEL

La Datcha Courchevel is an astounding contemporary estate teeming with urban chic glamor. Exhilarating mountain views abound from this lavish Alpine residence, its grandeur matching the home's momentous interior design. Belonging to the prestigious neighborhood of Chenus, exceptional design meets revered positioning, perched under 300 feet from the resort's most beloved slopes.

A gorgeous free-flowing great room presents unadulterated luxury, with timeless elegance meeting cosmopolitan high fashion refinement. Stunning white oak interiors offer dramatic vaulted vectors and a network of exposed beam ceilings. The dynamic space is punctured with chic architectural skylights and artfully placed windows refracting the ample winter sun in novel and unexpected ways. Gorgeous tiled accent walls exude a beautiful industrial copper patina. An ingenious floor plan navigates between a glammed-up wet bar and wine cooler, outfitted with scintillating stone and metal finishes, multiple plush seating arrangements, and a formal dining area. Candelabras, dainty chandeliers, and exquisite sculptural lighting fixtures produce an uncanny, timelessly elegant ambiance. La Datcha Courchevel offers three floors of prime living space, connected by stairs and an in-home elevator. Five sumptuous ensuite bedrooms accommodate ten guests in utmost comfort and discretion. Sophisticated wine storage and a ski room with boot heaters on the lower floor bring modern convenience, while an in-home spa with hammam, indoor hot tub and KLAFS sauna promises a world of bodily bliss between an indoor swimming pool and fitness lounge.

This fantastically autonomous luxury residence presents ample terrace space, offering guests complete immersion into the untamed beauty of the French Alps. Dazzling far-reaching mountain views are the ultimate accompaniment to a fine wine amidst engaging conversation with friends or family.
