SOUTHAMPTON, HAMPTONS

Villa Lisa is an exquisite mansion embraced by verdant foliage. Pastoral and enchanting, this Southampton home is well situated in proximity to the region's quaint villages, beaches, and the renowned Noyac golf course.

Found at the sweet spot of tradition and contemporary refinement, the stately Villa Lisa abounds in timeless elegance. A glorious two-story great room is doused in natural light from a wall of oversized French windows. Sunbleached wood paneling and crown molding pop against a creamy brown palette. Plush, inviting furniture is vivid with patterns and textured fabrics, creating a wholesome and inviting ambiance. The open space integrates a charming provincial French-style kitchen with sleek top-of-the-line appliances and white marble countertops melding effortlessly with an antique wood dining set. Five aesthetically immaculate bedrooms are equipped with ensuites, while an auxiliary suite is located in the basement. A total of twelve guests are afforded the utmost comfort and discretion between 6,500 sq. ft of well-appointed living space. Additional amenities such as an in-home sauna, private office, and rec room are welcome perks.

Presenting a beautiful outdoor area, a luscious lawn is embraced by dense foliage, peppered with quaint additions, from the hammock to the firepit. An outdoor kitchenette with a custom grilling area beckons late-night BBQs with good company. A mere five minutes to the water, nothing goes down smoother with a post-meal drink than the soothing sounds of the ocean surf.
