RAYONG

While just over 100 miles from Bangkok, Rayong is worlds apart from the bustling city and one of Thailand's most underrated destinations. Rayong's shores, a bastion of pristine and unspoiled tropical majesty, deliver the serenity offered on some of the world's most private islands. Far more than a pit stop en route to Ko Samet Island, this region provides beautiful national parks, serene white sand beaches, and enchanting coves. From the panoramic sands of Mae Ram Pheung to the still waters of Laem Mae Phim, this province offers every gradient of beachside enjoyment. Let the time-forgotten fishing villages of Ban Phe lull you into the intoxicating pace of tropical beachside living, where empty cocktail glasses measure time. Authentic and yours for the taking, Rayong offers untouched coastal splendor, proving the path less taken is often the most rewarding.
