VILLA CHERYL

MONTECITO, SANTA BARBARA

Villa Cheryl is a glorious residence commanding stunning Pacific panoramas. Authoritatively perched on a lush hillside, this coveted Montecito property overlooks Channel Island and Santa Barbara Harbor, curating an exemplary backdrop for relaxation or entertaining. Far-reaching vistas create a sensation of infinite space, while lush native foliage encloses this serene private oasis.

Spectacular interiors present a potent fusion of contemporary chic elegance and oriental exoticism. Crisp lines and sleek vertice make up thoroughly modern and dynamic interiors doused in a sophisticated palette of beige, cream, grey, and warm timber. Gorgeous Egyptian coral stone floors are inlaid with teak presenting the pinnacle of parquetry. Oversized windows and retractable openings douse the interiors in generous California sunlight, animating a stunning spectrum of precious stone and opulent varnished finishes. Crisp, harmonious, and sophisticated, Villa Cheryl is conceived for spontaneous get-togethers or lavish cocktail soirees flaunting no shortage of seductive seating arrangements poised before unobstructed ocean vistas. The great room flaunts double-height dimensions and elaborate coffered and exposed beam ceilings. A selection of contemporary paintings imparts a delectable cosmopolitan ambiance, bolstered by a state-of-the-art chef's kitchen and expansive wine cellar. Five fantastic ensuite bedrooms accommodate twelve guests in utmost comfort, discretion, and elegance between the primary residence and the on-site guest house. Additional amenities include a sizeable home office and a 640 sq. ft private gym.

Villa Cheryl comes to its fullest expression with her enchanting exteriors. The grounds span over an acre of verdant lawns and manicured foliage, traversing exceptional shaded and unshaded alfresco spaces. An elevated alfresco dining space maximally interacts with the far-reaching views, while a commanding swimming pool, and spa below, offer the ultimate refreshment day or night.

SANTA BARBARA

MONTECITO

Nestled between the Santa Ynez Mountains and the Pacific Ocean on the Central Coast of California, Santa Barbara offers extensive ocean panoramas paired with Spanish-style architecture. The nearby Channel Islands and wine country encourage more scenic adventure, while historic theaters lining State Street are ideal for unwinding and taking in a show. Visitors and locals alike delight in Santa Barbara's exclusive dining options with plenty of farm-to-table and local fare, and shoppers flock to State Street for stylish finds. For a contemporary twist, a visit to the Funk Zone is a must. Undoubtedly one of California's hottest luxury destinations, Santa Barbara is increasingly the setting for some of the world's most outstanding homes. An icon of the Montecito coastline, from architecture to design, the stunning Villa Fely belongs to a category of its own. Summer exuberance meets a new dimension of fine living on three acres of manicured terrain and 240 ft of prime ocean frontage.
