CORAL HOUSE

LEEWARD, TURKS AND CAICOS

Coral House is a masterwork of Caribbean colonial-style architecture perched along the famed sands of Grace Bay Beach. This regal beachfront estate offers the pinnacle of tropical island luxury, assuring guests the ultimate discretion and serenity. Coral House enjoys quick access to fine dining establishments, a mere ten to fifteen-minute drive away fo a comprehensive Turks and Caicos luxury experience.

Gorgeous interiors abound with high culture pomp, regal arched french windows, and doorways leading to aesthetically immaculate seating areas. Pristine white interiors are inundated with natural light and technicolor from the outdoors, animating classically beautiful decor and furnishings. Light and airy yet weighted with aristocratic prestige, gorgeous period credenzas and console tables accompany the great room's luxuriant upholstery. Warm rattan accents impart an uncanny Island romanticism, while a formal dining pavilion dazzles with imperial elegance in stone-clad interiors. A serene palette of beige, cream, and wood accents invoke the pristine white sands, a few barefoot steps away. Seven exceptional ensuite bedrooms accommodate fourteen guests in utmost comfort, discretion, and style. Dreamy pastel tones, ornate accent furnishings, vaulted ceiling breeziness define the private suites. Six suites boast dazzling water views, while others enjoy quick access to the gorgeous outdoor deck.

Coral House offers extraordinary outdoors replete with ample deck spaces and plenty of shaded and unshaded areas outfitted for outdoor entertaining. A dining rotunda and cabana overlook breathtaking sea vistas, while a tranquil internal courtyard teems with jungle foliage. A chic infinity pool is splayed directly before the beachy coast, its waters merging seamlessly with the mesmerizing blue horizon.

TURKS AND CAICOS

LEEWARD

Turks and Caicos is an archipelago of eight major islands and many small cays in the tropical Atlantic Ocean, southeast of the Bahamas. Its stunning blue waters and pristine white sand give the island some of the world's most amazing beaches. The Turks and Caicos is a true island destination. Its residents come from all over the world and from all walks of life. Yet, the island is a proud British Overseas Territory with its own unique heritage and culture. Travelers will also experience an immaculate marine environment, friendly people, and fine dining. The gateway island of Providenciales, known as Provo, is home to expansive Grace Bay Beach, with high-end shops and restaurants. Scuba-diving sites include a 14-mile barrier reef on Provo's north shore and a dramatic 2,134-meter underwater wall off Grand Turk Island. Stay for the natural bounties or embark on a more luxuriant adventure in the far-flung depths of the turquoise waters on a private island.
