Beautiful interiors capture the quintessential Swiss Alpine spirit, with lovely common areas encased by wooden beamed ceilings, traditional paneled walls, and timber floors. The top floor is the open plan living space with double-height, vaulted ceiling and doors opening onto the terraces. The sitting area offers cozy sofas set around a traditional stone fireplace and a corner bar. At the same time, the wine cellar beckons magical moments savoring a fine vintage before the warmth of the hearth. There is also a double bedroom with an ensuite bathroom and a quad bunk room with an ensuite shower room. An additional sleeping area is on the mezzanine level, which can be accessed via the main living area and has two single beds and a dedicated shower room on the ground floor.
