Penthouse Ramses is an astounding residence blending high culture aristocratic elegance with scintillating glamor. Prestigiously positioned, this urban retreat overlooks Knightsbridge park, overlooking Hyde Park's iconic Serpentine pond on South Carriage Drive. Revel in magnificent 360-degree views spanning the icons of the London skyline from The City to the West End and the Palace of Westminster.

The lift opens directly onto a private lobby packed with Art Deco glamor, offering a gorgeous prologue to the rest of this magnificent property. Ramses' six sumptuous ensuite bedrooms accommodate twelve discerning guests with comforts fit for a Pharoah. Extraordinary spa-inspired baths are outfitted with mesmerizing marble and precious stone finishes. The floorplan navigates through over 8000 sq. ft of prime living space, each salon more exemplary than the last. A set of splendid, bespoke walnut burl doors lead into a glorious 10-foot high ceiling reception room with a glossy white grand piano. French windows shower the space with extraordinary Hyde Park views, opening onto a vast decked roof terrace. A high contrast color palette of crisp white, beige, and dark wood curates unequivocal sophistication and regal refinement. Natural light is harnessed and refracted in ethereal ways across lacquered surfaces, glass railings, and silver decor in the multi-level great room. Presenting an irresistible fusion of old Hollywood glamor with haute couture panache, Penthouse Ramses resounds with the sheer opulence of its ancient namesake.
