VILLA LUNA

THE BIRD STREETS, LOS ANGELES

Villa Luna is an exemplary contemporary home conceived by renowned architect Paul McClean. Sleek, striking, and glamorous, this stunning property presents the pinnacle of haute couture refinement. Prestigiously perched in the famed "bird streets" of the Hollywood hills, the views commanded by this estate are second to none.

Immaculately conceived, dramatic vertices, double-height ceilings, and retractable glass walls combine, setting unprecedented standards of luxury residential living. An inventive open concept floor plan facilitates flow and spontaneity while retaining the integrity of each room. Dynamic use of glass, water features, and light seamlessly collate the distinction between indoor and outdoor living. The delectable contemporary elegance of the great room, smattered with swanky low-profile seating arrangements, opens up to the endless urban vistas. Stunning accents include a modern lacquered credenza, a monochrome contemporary art piece, and neoclassical sculpture. Tastefully appointed and aesthetically immaculate, Villa Luna blurs the distinction between art and art of living. Four showstopping bedrooms accommodate up to ten guests over 8,000 sq. ft of living space. The master suite is on cloud nine, with awe-inspiring views, a sensational bath, a private terrace, and a fireplace. An exceptional screening room, private gym, office, and wet bar supply plentiful recreation to distinguished guests.

Magnificent outdoors match the glory of the nocturnal vistas, with a glorious wrap-around infinity pool lined with enticing sun loungers. An additional, more intimate seating area is embraced by verdant foliage, supported by heated lamps for all-season enjoyment. This lavish Hollywood Hills mansion rental elevates highlife living to vertiginous heights.

LOS ANGELES

THE BIRD STREETS

Los Angeles holds many distinctions. Its ethereal and otherworldly character earns it the beloved moniker, the City of Angels. It may be the birthplace of Hollywood, but it is much more than just red carpets and silver screen stars. Having a thriving art scene, LA is an absolute cultural mecca with more than 100 museums, like the Los Angeles County Museum of Art (LACMA) with seminal artwork. The city has an exciting medley of restaurants and bars to choose from, and the Art Deco Griffith Observatory high up in the Hollywood Hills, with its Samuel Oschin Planetarium, Tesla Coil, and cameos in several iconic films, is one of LA's most distinctive landmarks. Electric with ethnic diversity and an uncanny Mediterranean climate, Los Angeles is a world unto itself.
