THE MURAKA

RANGALI ISLAND, MALDIVES

The Muraka of the Conrad Maldives Rangali Resort curates a truly extraordinary Island experience. A veritable masterwork of contemporary design and technology, this two-level residence features seamless above and below ocean living. Aptly called the Muraka, meaning coral in the native language of Dhivehi, this trailblazing estate epitomizes luxury in tandem with the spellbinding ecosystem of the Indian Ocean.

Radiant white interiors and scintillating floor-to-ceiling glass walls inundate the interiors with spellbinding sea vistas. No expense is spared with mesmerizing marble-clad accents delineating a space of astounding prestige and high fashion sensibilities. A scintillating formal dining area is flanked by stunning cabinetry, while glimmering stone floors exude cosmopolitan refinement. The enchanting undersea bedroom, living space, and bathroom take center stage, challenging conceptions of luxury living before a geodesic acrylic dome. Three sumptuous ensuite bedrooms accommodate nine guests in unmatched luxury, discretion, and style. Far-reaching water views challenge guests to reconfigure their relationship with the extraordinary beauty and majesty of the ocean. A staircase brings guests to an otherworldly realm of aquatic wonder via a spiral staircase. Upon the ocean floor, interface seamlessly with corals brimming with sea life, and discover the ethereal beauty of sunlight refracted beneath crystalline turquoise waters. Endlessly exhilarating, Muraka is sure to inspire childlike awe and wonder in the most discerning guest.

Indulge in a refreshing dip in the infinity-edge pool or sun-soaked cocktails on the west-facing deck caught up in Island reverie. Each evening guests may descend to the famed subaqueous floor, lulled in utter relaxation by the otherworldly underwater ambiance.
