VILLA KAMRYN

WAILEA, MAUI

Villa Kamryn is a beautiful waterfront estate in a prime location that provides both privacy and access to South Maui's Polo Beach. This unique beachfront estate is ideally situated for both privacy and beach activities. With direct access to a sandy, shallow entry swimming beach on one side and a lava rock beach on the other side, this home defines the best of Maui. Within walking distance down the beach or walkway are hotel restaurants and shops, or take a 5-minute drive for the best of South Maui's shopping and top restaurants at the Shops at Wailea.

This beautiful home features four equally-beautiful homes, all en-suite with bathrooms, all of which are located on the upper floor. The entire interior is furnished with gorgeous furniture that is designed to give off that striking balance between comfort and luxury. The choice of color palette adds a sense of tranquility to the overall ambiance. The huge open concept family room/kitchen area has magnificent vaulted ceilings and floor to ceiling glass windows that slide open for bringing the tropical ocean breeze and view inside this Maui beach house. Warm wood detailing and breezy ceiling fans decorate the high ceilings throughout this home and keep the beach home feeling tropical and luxurious. Antique Asian decoration throughout the home is tasteful and modern without feeling fussy or overdone. You'll find yourself actually enjoying food prep as you use the ample solid surface counter space in the open kitchen with stainless steel appliances.

Sunrise and sunset are great times to look for resident green sea turtles that commonly make an appearance as they forage the waters directly in front of this oceanfront property. Outdoor amenities include heated plunge pool/Jacuzzi, alfresco shower, alfresco dining area and a gas grill. Guests can rent kayaks, stand up paddleboards, boogie boards, and snorkel gear at the opposite end of the beach, or take a short drive to the many golf courses nearby including the Wailea Blue Course, the Gold Course or the Makena Course.

MAUI

WAILEA

There are a myriad of reasons Maui is consistently named the planet’s best island. The bottom line is Maui is simply intoxicatingly beautiful. Trade winds rustle the palm trees, the sunsets are so stunning they are a daily celebration and the perfume of hibiscus scents the air. The weather is warm year-round and there are miles and miles of swimmable beaches. Maui is a nature-lover’s paradise with the waters between Maui, Molokai and Lanai home to the densest population of Humpback whales in the world from December to April. Even with the wealth of tropical beauty, the history, and succulent flavors, the enduring reason Maui is so loved is the Hawaiian culture itself and the warm, welcoming sense of aloha.
