CHALET HADRIEN

MERIBEL LES ALLUES, MERIBEL

Chalet Hadrien is an exquisite mountain lodge that blends rustic alpine charm with refined elegance. Nestled in one of the world's most prestigious ski resorts, this luxury chalet in the French Alps features a traditional wood and stone exterior that evokes timeless mountain style. Chalet Hadrien serves as an idyllic retreat for those seeking an opulent winter escape amidst the stunning backdrop of the French Alps.

Inside, the chalet's interiors beautifully balance traditional alpine design with modern luxury. Natural materials and opulent furnishings create an ambiance of warmth and comfort. Wooden beams frame a rustic yet elegant setting, while plush sofas invite relaxation. The spacious living room stands as the heart of this luxury ski chalet, where large armchairs surround a striking fireplace, offering a cozy atmosphere after a day on the slopes. Adjacent to the living area, the dining space seamlessly integrates comfort and functionality, with a well-appointed bar adding to the charm of the luxury mountain chalet, creating an ideal space for après-ski gatherings. The chalet houses eight beautifully designed bedrooms, including double rooms, family suites, and a dedicated children's bedroom, making it suitable for larger groups or families with children. The high-end relaxation area, featuring an indoor pool, sauna, and Hammam, provides a well-deserved retreat after a long day on the mountain. For additional entertainment, the media room ensures enjoyment for all ages.

Outside, the expansive terrace showcases spectacular views of the surrounding peaks, ideal for enjoying the crisp mountain air. The property also includes a garage for added convenience, while its prime location places guests within easy reach of the charming village, establishing Chalet Hadrien as an unrivaled luxury chalet retreat.
