VILLA SIMONA

STAR, PALM AND HIBISCUS ISLANDS, MIAMI

Villa Simona is a striking contemporary waterfront residence brimming with quintessential Miami glamor and prestige. A coveted Hibiscus Island perch flaunts westerly positioning delivering outstanding sunsets before the glittering waters and city skyline. Secluded and tucked away, yet at a moment's notice from the neon glitz of South Beach and the bustle of the downtown core, Villa Simona dazzles far and wide.

This wondrous glass and steel edifice delivers radiant interiors fusing urban chic glamor with minimalist sensibilities. A whitewashed monochrome palette impresses with simplicity and aesthetic purity, enhancing the home's dramatic dimensions and crisp vertices. A masterclass in contemporary precision, Villa Simona navigates seamlessly to wondrous common areas wrapped in floor-to-ceiling glass. Supple sectionals take center stage offering first-row seats to immersive panoramic sunsets before ultra-svelte wrap-around sliding windows. Gleaming precious stone cabinetry, scintillating glass, and metal surfaces deliver runway gloss to expansive entertaining spaces ideally conceived for late-night cocktails or pre-gala get-togethers. The minimal contemporary kitchen is decked in top-of-the-line appliances from Miele and Wolf & Subzero. A built-in bar and movie theatre with leather recliners delivers the pinnacle of comfort, while a gorgeous eight-seat dining area is crowned with artful blown-glass bulbs. Six sumptuous bedrooms overlook stunning views over the Bay.

The exteriors match the caliber of the interior design with multi-level terraces before the shimmering waters. Straddling 85' of water frontage with a boat lift and dock, Villa Simona promises luxuriant nautical expeditions. The heated infinity edge twelve-foot lap pool is accompanied by a hot tub and fire pit, ensuring guests soak up plenty of moments in the sun.
