LADENA

QUEENSTOWN, NEW ZEALAND

Ladena is a spectacular concept estate perched on the hillsides overlooking Queenstown. Serene and private within a short distance, this home offers a stunning portal into the wonders of the Southern Island, immersed in natural majesty while within reach of wineries, recreation, restaurants, and more. The residence's intriguing polygonal shape maximizes interaction with awe-inspiring views over Lake Wakatipu and New Zealand's Southern Alps.

Interiors present a bold luxury living concept with dramatic sloping ceilings, an intuitive open concept layout, and endless panes of all-encompassing glass. Uncanny interiors offer an ingenious use of space with rich timber-lined walls imparting a delectable warmth and ski-lodge romanticism. A buxom concrete retaining wall houses a double-sided linear fireplace delineating the carpeted comfort of the chic living space with the formal dining room. Exceptionally well-appointed furnishings are inflected with a mid-century modern inflection offering plenty of intrigue for the interior design-minded guest. Utterly inundated with the wondrous town, lake, and mountain views, this home abounds with an exquisite sense of serenity and oneness with the elements. Five bedrooms, each with en-suite bathrooms, accommodate ten guests in utmost comfort, discretion, and elegance. Amenities include a media room, wine cellar with tasting room, and a stylish modern kitchen that elevates gastronomic indulgence to new heights.

Coveted exteriors invite guests to soak in the very best views of Queenstown and Lake Wakatipu. Revel in the comforts of the spa before the sparkle of the city below and the majestic mountain silhouettes. A wealth of private balcony and terrace spaces encourage intimate entertaining opportunities around the barbecue and fire pit.
