TOWNHOUSE ELLEN

TRIBECA, NEW YORK CITY

Townhouse Ellen is a gorgeous modern mansion reveling in cosmopolitan chic elegance. Prestigiously poised in the heart of Tribeca, this historic residence was one of the first-ever single-family homes built in the area. Hitting all the right notes, this luxury residence peers into the very essence of the New York highlife, close to some of the world's most coveted fine dining and high-end retail establishments.

Spanning seven stories, each more spectacular than the last, this residence presents five sumptuous en-suite bedrooms across over 8000 sq. ft of prime living space. An astounding double-story great room dazzles guests with its stature, delivering gorgeous post-modern decor updated with a delectable Imperial Chinese flair. Soaring French windows enhance the fantastical oversized decor elements from the stunning abstract impressionist piece to the numeral clock, dwarfing the lush beige sectional by comparison. A striking red dining room abounds in oriental exuberance, with crystal chandeliers, a gold-gilded apothecary credenza, and dynastic parquetry melding for a genuinely sophisticated ambiance. Guests may navigate the sprawling residence via the private elevator or the striking Italian marble and iron spiral staircase. Guests may look forward to the home's Sonos audio system, 100-gallon fish tank, wood-burning fireplace, and multiple wine storage cellars during their stay

The sixth penthouse floor finds you at the informal entertainment room and the first floor of the duplex rooftop terrace. Here the steak masters amongst us may be tempted by the delightful BBQ ambiance. The sundeck floor presents the cherry on top of the sundae with a stainless steel jacuzzi delivering unparalleled 360-degree city skyline views. LVH requires owners to comply with regulations for all home rentals within New York City.
