TOWNHOUSE FREYA

UPPER EAST SIDE, NEW YORK CITY

Townhouse Freya is an exquisite modern estate well poised in the Historic Upper East Side. This marvelous estate abounding in the prestige of a contemporary art museum is fittingly perched above a gallery. A rare find, this opulent Manhattan luxury vacation rental quite literally blurs the lines between art and the art of living.

An aesthete's dream, guests are greeted with an expansive 2,085 sq. ft art gallery replete with a soaring 23 ft. waterfall. A visionary architectural achievement, Townhouse Freya boasts the most serene and glamorous indoor water feature out of any Upper East Side mansion. The private elevator brings guests to the ultra-chic living quarters sprawling from the second to the fifth floors. An ultra streamlined, minimalist kitchen flaunts exquisite finishes, an adjacent breakfast area supplanting a space designed for gathering and gastronomic exploration. A third floor integrates stunning contemporary pieces with the living space, housing a versatile auxiliary family room on one end and an ultra-chic private ensuite on the other. The minimalist bedrooms present dynamic environments endlessly customizable per guest needs, adaptable as conference spaces, and much more. The crowning Penthouse Suite offers the epitome of high life living, complete with a lounge space and bedroom teeming with priceless postmodern art.

A serene rooftop terrace complete with a garden presents a private oasis of seclusion. Rounding off a sensational venue for late-night entertaining, indulge in the sumptuous lounge furniture admiring original sculptures beneath the scintillating lights of Manhattan. LVH requires owners to comply with regulations for all home rentals within New York City.
