PELICAN VILLA

NEWPORT COAST, ORANGE COUNTY

Villa Pelican is an exquisite coastal retreat perched within the prestigious enclaves of Orange County, California, overlooking the vast Pacific horizon and the refined beauty of Newport Coast. Defined by its commanding hillside position, the estate captures sweeping ocean vistas, where golden sunsets dissolve into the shimmering coastline below. Surrounded by manicured landscapes and architectural elegance, the setting embodies a seamless blend of privacy, serenity, and proximity to Southern California’s most coveted beaches, upscale dining, and vibrant coastal culture.

The interior reveals a masterclass in luxurious living, where expansive proportions and refined finishes converge in a luminous open-plan living room. Framed by soaring ceilings and grand glass expanses, the space is bathed in natural light, effortlessly merging indoor sophistication with the allure of the outdoors. A carefully curated palette of soft neutrals and bespoke materials enhances the villa’s understated opulence. Adjacent, a designer kitchen unfolds as both a functional centerpiece and social hub, appointed with premium finishes, a statement island, and seamless integration into formal and informal dining areas. The residence accommodates up to ten guests across five beautifully appointed guest bedrooms, each offering a tranquil sanctuary defined by comfort and elevated design. An additional dedicated staff bedroom is also available within the residence. Elevated lifestyle amenities are thoughtfully woven throughout the residence, including a private theater featuring an X-inch screen, a dedicated gaming and entertainment area with an X-inch LED panel display, a grand piano, and a fully integrated sound system that enriches every gathering. Recreation and wellness are equally prioritized with an air hockey table, ping-pong table, and a fully equipped gym complete with a Pilates reformer.

Outdoors, the estate transforms into a private resort-style haven, where terraced grounds reveal an impressive poolscape complete with a sculptural infinity-edge pool, spa, and multiple lounging areas designed for both relaxation and entertaining. Lush greenery, ambient lighting, and panoramic viewpoints frame every moment, while shaded terraces and alfresco dining spaces invite effortless gatherings beneath the California sky. An outdoor shower enhances the resort atmosphere, while an X-inch fire pit creates an intimate focal point for evenings overlooking the coastline. Villa Pelican stands as a refined expression of coastal luxury living, where architecture, landscape, and lifestyle exist in perfect harmony.
