THE REDMOND RANCH

REDMOND, OREGON

The Redmond Ranch is an extraordinary ranch estate nestled in the high desert terrain of Central Oregon, just outside the town of Redmond. Ideally located only 15 minutes from the Bend/Redmond Airport, 30 minutes from Bend, and 20 minutes from Sisters, the property offers convenient access to some of Oregon's most celebrated outdoor destinations, including the region's renowned golf courses such as Pronghorn and Brasada. The ranch is encircled by 300 acres of walking and horse trails, directly accessible from the estate, offering immersive experiences in the surrounding wilderness.

The interiors speak to a language of refined restraint, where contemporary minimalism is enriched by raw textures and thoughtful craftsmanship. In the main log home lodge there is a voluminous great room with exposed beam ceilings and sweeping glass walls, framing majestic desert views and centering around a monumental fireplace. The estate encompasses three distinct structures: a sophisticated main Log home lodge with five beautifully appointed master suite bedrooms, a versatile modern Post and Beam barn home featuring three additional bunk style (2 bed) bedrooms ideal for hosting events, and a secluded Ranch house designed exclusively for staff. The Ranch house, complete with four private bedrooms and three bathrooms is located discretely on the far end of the ranch near the 6 stall barn and arena, should guests want to bring their own horses.

With equestrian-friendly terrain, open skies, a small shooting range, an arena, pickleball court, 15-acre pasture, and a serene riverbank, the estate offers rare opportunities for riding, recreation, and relaxation. A private river winds for over two-thirds of a mile through the estate grounds, with a private dock offering direct access for kayaking, tube floating, and fly-fishing in crystal-clear waters. One of the property's rarest natural features, Oden Falls, cascades within the estate itself. The estate offers rare opportunities for riding, recreation, and relaxation. A singular offering of scale, beauty, and purpose, The Redmond Ranch is more than a residence, it is a fully immersive experience in modern frontier luxury, equally suited for private escapes or unforgettable gatherings.
