MOTU NAO NAO ISLAND

FRENCH POLYNESIA, PACIFIC OCEAN ISLANDS

Motu Nao Nao Island is an extraordinary private island retreat in the lagoon of Raiatea, French Polynesia, epitomizing unrivaled seclusion and luxury in a tropical setting. This exclusive 75-acre sanctuary features handcrafted villas immersed in nature and framed by pristine white-sand beaches, turquoise waters, and panoramic ocean vistas. Designed with organic materials and elegant island craftsmanship, the estate harmonizes with its lush landscape while offering an incomparable escape for those seeking total privacy and bespoke island living.

The interior environments of Motu Nao Nao's villas blend refined design with natural elements, bespoke furnishings, and generous indoor-outdoor living spaces that celebrate the beauty of French Polynesia. Each villa opens to spectacular island or lagoon views and is furnished with custom pieces that reflect the locale's serene elegance. Living areas are relaxed yet sophisticated, with ample seating, Sonos sound systems, and seamless transitions to outdoor decks. Kitchens - where present - are equipped for private dining experiences, supported by a dedicated chef who curates seasonal menus from locally sourced ingredients. Bedrooms, each with luxurious linens and private baths, feature king or queen beds, providing sanctuary-like comfort for up to six guests across three villas. Exclusive amenities include full staff service, private chef-prepared meals, and an array of bespoke experiences tailored to the rhythm of island life.

Exteriors of Motu Nao Nao unfold across a postcard-perfect islet rich with tropical flora, expansive beaches and lush walking trails. Waterborne exploration is effortless with snorkeling, paddleboarding, and kiteboarding in crystalline lagoon waters.
