VILLA FROSTWOOD GONDOLA

CANYONS VILLAGE, PARK CITY

Villa Frostwood Gondola is an exceptional mountain retreat, a ski-in/ski-out alpine residence set within the prestigious Canyons Village of Park City. Framed by sweeping mountain ridgelines and positioned just steps from the Frostwood Gondola, the home is crafted in a refined mountain contemporary style with expansive glass, vaulted volumes, and natural materials. This remarkable setting offers seamless access to world-class skiing and year-round recreation, creating an effortless and elevated alpine escape.

The interiors unfold with a polished, contemporary mountain aesthetic where clean architectural lines meet warm textures and curated furnishings. A vaulted great room anchors the home, showcasing a modern tiled hearth and dramatic floor-to-ceiling windows that capture uninterrupted views of the slope. The living area invites relaxed gatherings, while a formal dining space for eight connects fluidly to a chef's kitchen appointed with professional-grade appliances and premium finishes. Seven bedrooms accommodate up to sixteen guests, with six king suites featuring private en-suite bathrooms and a bunk room with twin-over-queen configurations for additional flexibility. Each suite offers refined comfort with elevated finishes and thoughtful spatial privacy. A lower-level media and games lounge introduces a social dimension, complete with a wet bar, lounge seating, and ping pong. Additional amenities include ski storage, air conditioning, and a private hot tub designed for après-ski relaxation.

Outdoors, the residence is immersed in alpine beauty, with immediate access to ski slopes in winter and the Canyons Golf Course in summer. A covered barbecue terrace and private hot tub terrace extend the living experience into the open air, framed by panoramic mountain views. The surrounding landscape invites skiing, hiking, and biking, while the setting evokes a sense of exclusivity and effortless connection to nature in every season.

Once a bustling mining town, its rich heritage is interwoven with modern-day charm, offering trails that whisper tales of its industrious past. Known for the ultimate winter trifecta: snowboarding, skiing, and the Sundance Film Festival, Park City can provide an epic adventure. The city has two major ski resorts Deer Valley Resort and Park City Mountain Resort.
