MANOWCE PALACE

TRZEBIERADZ, POLAND

Manowce Palace is a spellbinding Prussian manor brimming with historical intrigue and timeless opulence. This wondrous Imperial residence straddles the serene shores of Szczecin Bay by the Baltic Sea. Perched in the pristine woodlands of Northwestern Poland, Manowce elevates the rural getaway to new heights. Unmatched serenity and discretion curate a magical setting for reconnection with the elements and total rejuvenation.

A sublime facade brims with eternal neoclassical style, elaborate friezing, and a commanding portico offering an unmatched first impression. Old European classicism dazzles in ornate splendor with seamlessly integrated fixtures, furnishings, and appliances delivering the height of twenty-first-century comforts. A perfectly preserved museum interior flaunts priceless antiques, romanticist paintings, and wall paneling popping with modern color. First-class contemporary furniture by Minotti, B&B Italia, and SieMatic presents a gorgeous dynamism between the regal past and an ultra-chic present. From bridal and executive suites to comfortable bedrooms, original features are flaunted with artistry and pure elegance in mind. This superb property offers three stunning apartments and thirteen double bedrooms, accommodating thirty-three guests. Versatile lodging options elevate occupancy levels to forty-two, including sofa beds and ancillary quarters. All private suites are outfitted with the latest in audiovisual and entertainment technology for guest convenience. An exceptional venue for conferences, seminars, private celebrations, and more, indulge in the luxuries of a bygone era within this sublime monument of aristocratic Prussian heritage.

Palatially manicured lawns, gardens, fountains, and parklands transport guests to a time of Imperial luxury. Immersive water vistas deliver a remarkable sensation of zen calm. Complimentary use of kayaks, fishing boats with rods, and bicycles ensure an idyllic summer retreat far from the crowds and at one with the elements. Belonging to a minimal series of Northern European estates for exclusive holiday use, Manowce Palace offers a once-in-a-lifetime luxury vacation experience.
