SPARROW HILLS

WROBLEWO, POLAND

Sparrow Hills is a majestic estate located in the heart of the Wielkopolskie Voivodeship, a mere 50 km away from the historic city of Poznan. Enclosed by lush foliage and overlooking picturesque wild meadows, this Neo-Renaissance masterpiece pushes the bounds of luxury residential living. Designed at the end of the 19th century, it is a testament to Europe's rich architectural heritage, blending historical intrigue with exceptional elegance.

Sparrow Hills whispers tales of opulent histories while embracing the sophisticated touch of modern luxury. Its interiors unfold like a poetic dance between age-old elegance and contemporary finesse. Every corner reveals tastefully decorated spaces dominated by subdued colors, natural light, and artful blends of the past and present. The heart of this majestic residence unfolds in its spacious living room with an elegant piano accentuated by high ceilings. The Villa's two kitchens—one for live cooking and another professional-grade—ensure culinary and gastronomic experiences par excellence. Encompassing eight luxurious apartments and nine majestic bedrooms with en suite bathrooms, the estate comfortably accommodates up to 18 guests. As the night settles in, the cinema room, doubling as a conference space, and fireplace room provide irresistible venues for relaxation and reflection.

Sparrow Hills' splendid exteriors match the pedigree of its interior design, with expansive lawns, a private herb and vegetable garden, and an eco-conscious farm. At the heart of its recreational offerings is a heated outdoor pool, positioned elegantly amidst its verdant surroundings, and a private spa offering various treatments, including massages and relaxing sessions with Tibetan singing bowls. Guests have exclusive access to a pristine lake, ideal for leisurely boat rides, kayaking, or SUPs. Moreover, those inclined to a serene ambiance can indulge in picnics, dinners, or even an evening under the stars.
