CASA KOKO

LA PUNTA ESTATES, PUNTA MITA

Casa Koko is an astonishing residence abounding with tropical charm, situated in Punta Mita's exclusive residential community. The brainchild of renowned architect Juan Collignon & interior designer Karen Collignon, Casa Koko presents a mix of chic contemporary design and traditional West Mexican Architecture. The Villa is strategically located, secluded with lovely ocean views, about equal distances from Gustavo Diaz airport and Playa Punta De Mita.

An estate that places the beauty of its natural building materials front and center, Casa Koko is a stunning tribute to its majestic natural surroundings. With Palapa roofed outdoor pavilions and dining terrace, attractive varieties and shades of wood on full display, cool terracotta walls, and exquisitely marbled surfaces, Casa Koko displays peak craftsmanship. This philosophy endows the home with a distinct authenticity and charm steeped in its tropical heritage. Plush textiles and contemporary furnishings add modern flair to exposed beam ceilings. The property features nine private suites, three exorbitant bedrooms with oceanfront views, and multiple garden view bedrooms. Each of the suites is equipped with en-suite bathrooms, ensuring the ultimate in discretion and comfort. Casa Koko includes an additional wellness flex room currently outfitted with two massage tables, which can be seamlessly converted into a private 10th bedroom featuring a king-size bed, ensuite bath with steam room, and private outdoor hot tub. Teeming with amenities, a spa sanctuary, fully equipped gym complete this oasis of relaxation.

Nestled amidst untouched rainforests and secluded beaches, this haven provides a rare glimpse into the essence of Punta Mita. Plentiful deck space surrounds a central infinity pool and jacuzzi, delivering pristine views of the Pacific ocean. Surrounded by virgin rainforests, secluded beaches, and thriving ecosystems, Casa Koko peers into the very soul of Punta Mita, with desirable proximity to golf, tennis, and beach clubs.
