VILLA LUCKA

PUNTA DE MITA, PUNTA MITA

Villa Lucka is an exceptional coastal oasis in Punta Mita, set within one of the destination’s most exclusive gated communities overlooking both the Pacific Ocean and the Jack Nicklaus–designed Pacifico golf course. This luxury beachfront–adjacent retreat is defined by lush tropical landscaping, palapa–style architecture, and expansive terraces that frame sweeping sea and fairway views. With full access to premier beach clubs and world–class amenities, the villa offers an elevated setting for refined Riviera living.

The interiors balance contemporary sophistication with warm, natural materials, creating a seamless indoor–outdoor living experience across three levels. The main living areas unfold beneath a dramatic palapa roof, where curated furnishings, open–air design, and ocean breezes establish a relaxed yet elegant ambiance. The fully equipped kitchen features a breakfast bar and is complemented by multiple indoor and outdoor dining areas, all supported by a dedicated chef and waitstaff. The villa offers ten bedrooms, most with en–suite bathrooms, each styled with refined finishes and luxurious linens. The sleeping configuration includes a collection of king suites, queen bedrooms with multiple beds, and twin accommodations, allowing flexibility for larger groups. Amenities include a state–of–the–art gym and a range of leisure spaces designed for both relaxation and activity.

The exterior spaces are designed for both entertainment and tranquility, featuring a heated saltwater pool, a Jacuzzi, and a swim–up bar set amid manicured tropical grounds. A private man–made beach, rooftop terrace with fire pit, an outdoor lounge and dining areas offer panoramic ocean and golf course views. Access to water sports, cycling paths, and nearby beaches enhances the experience, while the lush surroundings evoke a sense of effortless luxury and immersive coastal living.
