VILLA PARANAGUA

SANTA TERESA, RIO DE JANEIRO

Villa Paranagua is a wondrous luxury residence presenting a bold fusion of contemporary chic refinement and aristocratic prestige. A hotel in a league of its own, this property is a veritable jewel of Rio's prestigious Santa Teresa neighborhood, commanding extraordinary views over Guanabara Bay. Exotic tropical vegetation embraces the spacious property perpetually bathed in golden light, making up a secluded paradise at short notice from the city's exhilarating city center.

Fluid, contemporary, yet abounding in an old-world bourgeois refinement, Paranagua is entirely inspired by the sunny climate and supernatural local foliage. Modern oversized windows douse the interiors in generous light illuminating well-curated decor touring the line between aristocratic prestige and Industrial chic cosmopolitanism. Eighteenth-century impressionist paintings meld gloriously with cognac-toned mid-century accents in a fantastic room framed by jet black steel beams. Delicate iron wrought ornamentation invokes art nouveau romanticism in a free-flowing space, ideally suited for impromptu celebrations and lavish dining affairs. Ten exemplary bedrooms offer a distinct charm reflective of immaculate attention to design, luxury, and comfort. Each of the lavish ensembles spares no expense with king-sized bedding, 300-thread-count Trousseau linen, world-class amenities, robe, courtesy Havaianas, and spacious bathrooms with modern fittings design armchairs, and prime woods furniture. Guests may indulge in private balconies and convenient perks, including a minibar, safe, workspace, and Nespresso machine ideal for those with work obligations.

Prestigiously poised in one of Rio's most charming quarters, guests are within walking distance of the city's finest beaches and the city center. An unmatched sanctuary in the middle of a dazzling tropical metropolis, Paranagua's reputation precedes itself as an icon of luxury services, impeccable style, and comfort.
