VILLA BERNICE

SANTA FE, SANTA FE

Villa Bernice is set in the picturesque Tesuque Valley which is known for its lush landscapes and flowing streams, and just 7 minutes to the Santa Fe Plaza. The estate is an exquisite work of art and blends traditional Santa Fe architecture with modern lines, with interiors that are as comfortable as they are elegant.

The estate is 5,000 square feet, with 4 bedrooms and 4.5 baths that include a 1-bed & 1-bath casita, a thoughtfully appointed chefs kitchen, and a large open family space with luxuriously upholstered furniture. It is designed for open living, with bright, naturally lit rooms from large skylights and windows opening to the landscaped gardens and courtyards. Guests can enjoy Frette linens and robes, Le Creuset kitchenware, Wolf and Miele appliances, luxury bath amenities, a state of the art lighting system, whole home audio, and a Dolby Atmos entertainment center. It is equipped with air conditioning and heat to ensure comfort whether in vacationing in the summer or winter.

The gardens are delightful at any time of day, and hiking trails can be found nearby. With more than an acre of landscaped gardens and mature trees, lavish manicured lawns, and several water features, it is a beautiful setting unlike any other.

SANTA FE

SANTA FE

Few have proven impervious to the charms of New Mexico's state capital. Nestled along the enchanting Sangre de Cristo foothills, Santa Fe fuses majestic natural beauty with vivacious arts, culture, and award-winning gastronomy. Everchanging and exciting, this eclectic cultural hub offers the ultimate mix of the familiar and the exotic. Iconic Pueblo-style architecture and Spanish colonial influences set this town a world apart from any other corner of the country, with Santa Fe always living up to its tagline, “The City Different.” Offering all the thrills and cultural intrigue of a far-off destination, all within the United States, this fascinating city gives a new dimension to the increasingly popular adage of “being a tourist in your own country”.
