SARDINIA

COSTA SMERALDA

From its dreamy white sand coves, sheer cliffs, and mountainscapes dotted with roaming sheep, Sardinia has become one of Italy's foremost luxury destinations. Here, La Dolce Vita living is particularly potent, with a distinct regional culture adding a novel spin to the Italian tricolor. An untamed hinterland meets the emerald waters of the Tyrrhenian, with dramatic rock formations sculpting countless craggy coves and serene enclaves caressed by frothy seafoam. Scattered pieces of heaven are everywhere – from the jutting cliffs, majestic canyons, mysterious underground caves, endless emerald waters, and lush greenery. Drop anchor along the picturesque coastlines of Costa Smeralda or Golfo di Orosei, or set sail for the epic La Maddalena Islands. Regional eccentricities and a striking culinary and gastronomic tradition will attract Italophiles, while an unmatched coastal playground ensures guests extend their luxury getaways indefinitely. Sardinia's majestic coastlines and rugged beauty have inspired some of the world's most revered novelists and bohemians. Writer David Herbert (D.H.) Lawrence famously regarded the island as "something different" and intangible, like "freedom itself."
