SUVRETTA, ST. MORITZ

Chalet Marlena is a glorious mountain retreat perched in the serene environs of Survetta. Privileged positioning places guests a mere five-minute drive from the cosmopolitan center of St. Moritz luxury vacation rental and the famed Corviglia ski area. Immersive panoramic vistas over Val Bregaglia and neighboring ranges unravel in full Alpine glory from the comforts of this revered Swiss luxury Chalet rental.

Interiors are a masterwork of ski lodge romanticism and contemporary chic styling. Upon entering this exquisite estate, guests are immersed in a galaxy of roughhewn timber grains. A majestic network of trusses and beams sculpts perfectly symmetrical vaulted ceilings paired with immersive floor-to-ceiling glass. A custom cylindrical fireplace grounds a glorious great room flooded with radiant winter sun and immersive vistas over the Val Bregaglia. Ultra plush Scandinavian furnishings dazzle with comfort and functionality, while playful pops of saturated color curate a familiar and inviting space for family wind-downs by the crackle of the roaring fire. Artistic touches impart plenty of personality with Chalet Marlena, including a V12 Ferrari engine bookstand poised before glorious Alpine vistas. An open dining area with a splendid wooden table accommodates up to 12 people, and a fully equipped kitchen suited for skilled chefs is also located on the ground floor. This revered St. Moritz luxury vacation rental presents six excellent double ensuites that accommodate up to 12 guests, while the four twin ensuites offer versatile lodging options for children, additional guests, or accompanying staff. The wellness area has a Turkish bath, two massage rooms, a fitness area without gym equipment, shower facilities, and a swimming pool belonging to the lower level.

A full sensory experience awaits guests of this Swiss Alpine vacation Chalet, claiming the most beautiful vistas over the Engadine valley. Guests may bask in spellbinding sunrise or sunset colors from the many vantage points of the spacious terraces. Curl up with a warm blanket, regale in fine company, or enjoy a fine glass of red immersed in the divine tranquility of this high-altitude destination.

ST. MORITZ

SUVRETTA

Switzerland's timeless charm converges with refined cultural sophistication in the renowned ski resort of St. Moritz. This iconic destination is synonymous with opulence, boasting a plethora of grand hotels and Michelin-starred restaurants that uphold a legacy of excellence and exquisite living. St. Moritz, often called the "miniature city" of the Alps, is unparalleled in its allure.Beyond being a mere holiday retreat, this picturesque town nestled in the Engadin Valley played a pioneering role in the development of alpine tourism, earning it UNESCO recognition for its breathtaking beauty. The backdrop of two Winter Olympic games further solidifies its status as a haven for winter sports enthusiasts. For well over a century, St. Moritz has been a bastion of elite living, and its influence has extended into the cultural zeitgeist, making appearances in iconic films such as those of James Bond and Alfred Hitchcock. It offers a haven for year-round sporting activities, relaxation, and rejuvenation, all delivered with elegance and style. St. Moritz embodies the essence of the ultimate luxury retreat, and its reputation precedes it as a sanctuary of unparalleled indulgence.
