PAMPELONNE, ST-TROPEZ

Villa Azalea is an extraordinary beachfront-inspired coastal estate in the prestigious Pampelonne district of Saint-Tropez, where striking contemporary architecture meets the effortless elegance of the French Riviera. Perfectly positioned on private, level grounds just a short walk from the legendary Pampelonne Beach and the renowned Club 55, this exceptional St Tropez luxury vacation rental enjoys one of the area's most coveted locations. Showcasing captivating Mediterranean Sea views, the villa has been masterfully designed around its spectacular central pool, allowing every principal living space to embrace the surrounding landscape.

The interiors are a masterclass in contemporary design, celebrating luxurious living through grand open-concept spaces filled with natural light and remarkable architectural volume. The elegant living room serves as the heart of the home, featuring an expansive modular lounge overlooking the sparkling pool, manicured gardens, and the shimmering Mediterranean Sea. Towering eight-metre ceilings and fully retractable floor-to-ceiling glass walls create a seamless transition between the sophisticated interior and the sun-drenched terraces, enhancing the villa's exceptional indoor-outdoor lifestyle. Adjacent to the living area, a refined dining space flows effortlessly into a beautifully appointed designer kitchen with direct terrace access, perfectly suited for elegant entertaining. Thoughtfully arranged across two separate buildings, the estate accommodates up to twelve guests in six exquisitely designed en-suite bedrooms. Every bedroom features a 180 x 200 cm bed with direct access to the pool terrace, while the magnificent master suite occupies the entire upper floor and includes a private balcony, and breathtaking sea and garden views.

The magnificent outdoor spaces elevate this St-Tropez luxury vacation rental into one of the finest luxury retreats on the peninsula. At the centre of the estate, a spectacular twenty-five-metre heated swimming pool is elegantly framed by expansive travertine sun terraces, creating an idyllic setting for leisurely afternoons beneath the Mediterranean sun. A majestic palm tree anchors the sophisticated outdoor lounge, while generous parasols provide welcome shade across eleven luxurious sun loungers positioned around the pool. Beautifully landscaped gardens, exceptional alfresco entertaining areas, direct access from the five guest suites to the pool terrace, and a gated compound with parking for four vehicles, including a double garage, further enhance the villa's harmonious design.
