This sprawling multi-level estate boasts astounding common areas that collapse the distinction between indoor and outdoor space. Expansive common areas defined by double-height ceilings, a broad sense of lateral space, architectural highlights, and plaster-finished accent walls curate a home of exceptional glamor and prestige. Gorgeous crescent-shaped sofas graced with delectable teal and aquamarine throws convene next to an innovative three-sided fireplace. Sumptuous velour dining chairs abound with modernist elegance, assembled around a striking oval dining table perfectly perched between the chef's kitchen and covered terrace space.
