VILLA CASSIE

MOUNTAIN VILLAGE, TELLURIDE

Villa Cassie is a sprawling, secluded 7,881 sq ft Colorado home located between two superior ski runs with complete privacy combined with effortless access to the surrounding trails and slopes. You will be steps away from some world-class ski runs and epic hiking trails. And for a night out on the town or an afternoon of shopping, historic downtown Telluride is a short drive away.

Built into the graceful curve of the mountain slope, this captivating retreat blends seamlessly with the evergreen surroundings. Dappled sunshine glints off the windows and glass doors. The stone and timber facade is rustic yet elegant. Stately, double-wrought-iron front doors welcome you to the manor. In the living area, a wall of custom windows and glass doorways showcases the breathtaking views of the surrounding mountain peaks. A stone hearth and rugged wood beams create a warm, chalet-like vibe. Relax by the fire on the velvety sofa or one of the leather armchairs with a glass of wine in the evenings. A large flatscreen television is mounted on the hearth and is ideal for catching the game or your favorite show. n the chef-worthy kitchen, a huge marble island is topped with a bespoke carved wood vent hood. There is bar seating for five, two sinks, and an industrial gas range and refrigerator. A built-in breakfast nook will be the place everyone gathers in their robes while waiting for the morning coffee to brew. An additional pantry space has a wine fridge and a whimsical harlequin backsplash. Around the corner, a formal dining space has room for ten people, a stone fireplace, and gorgeous mountain views. It offers six beautifully designed bedrooms which accommodate up to fourteen adults, while the two bunk rooms are a perfect place for up to nine little ones for the ultimate sleepover experience. With tons of bonus space for large groups to spread out, it also features a media room/game room has a full-size pool table sitting next to a stone fireplace. Across the room, a huge flatscreen television faces an overstuffed leather sofa. Pop a huge bowl of buttery popcorn and sink down here for a double feature. There's also a private office space with seating for two that's ideal for completing remote work or school projects.

Outside through the glass doors, a spacious and sunny deck invites you to sit and stay awhile and breathe in the crisp mountain air. There's plenty of comfy seating to gather around and roast marshmallows in the twilight or grill some juicy barbeque at the built-in gas range. There is also a bubbly hot tub is a perfect place to soothe your sore muscles after a full day on the ski slopes.
