CASA CANTARENA

SIAN KA'AN, TULUM

Casa Cantarena is an extraordinary beachfront estate immersed in the sublime beauty of the UNESCO-recognized Sian Kaan Biosphere Reserve. Straddling the shores of a calm lagoon on one side and the boundless sea expanse on the other, Cantarena's natural positioning is second to none. A spectacular vision of eco-luxury comes alive; this residence is designed in utter harmony with its pristine ecosystem, sustained by solar and wind power.

Interiors present a gorgeous fusion of exotic elegance and contemporary chic refinement. Thoroughly modern yet infused with distinctly Mayan elements, Cantarena's free-flowing and intuitive interiors are exceptionally well-appointed. Soaring exposed beams, and thatched vaulted ceilings make up the incredibly airy, free-flowing great room. Romantic lanterns cascade freely from the double-story height before a gorgeous sunken seating arrangement cradled by aboriginal-styled trinkets. Polished stone, playful pink columns, and a soft palette of pastel tones curate an exceptionally playful space conceived for an impromptu gathering. Low-slung white sectionals make the sitting area inviting and provide the perfect space to enjoy a morning coffee and admire the incredible view of the blue ocean. This stunning home offers four suite-style bedrooms that accommodate nine in total comfort, discretion, and luxury. Each suite is slathered in soft shades of sand, coral, and turquoise, while showers clad in stone and wood give the bathrooms a delectable spa-worthy character.

Spellbinding exteriors satiate the ultimate tropical beach fantasy defined by generous multi-level deck spaces, serene nooks, wide open spaces, and soaring foliage. An expansive pool deck embraced by loungers brings guests front row center before majestic sunrise and sunset scenes. Alfresco diners are treated to an unmatched full-sensory experience within this tropical garden of Eden.

SIAN KA'AN

The laid-back beach town of Tulum has established itself as one of the planet's principal beach destinations and with good reason. Cliffs, ruins, neon water, and white sand all come together in a storybook vision. Visiting in early December or May is a good option, since it's warm and sunny, but crowds are minimal. Gone are the days when Tulum's visitors could expect rustic bungalows without electricity. In less than a decade, the town has remade itself into a very "in" spot frequented by celebrities and socialites. Tulum is now replete with world-class restaurants, high-end boutiques and accommodations. The most ideal way to spend an upscale vacation is in the best villas in Tulum offered by LVH Global.
