CASA IXCHEL

ZONA HOTELERA, TULUM

Casa Ixchel is an astounding contemporary residence nestled between the intense, intense hues of the Caribbean Sea and the old-growth jungle of Tulum. A veritable jewel of the Yucatan peninsula, the estate's iconic pearl white facade offers a regal hideaway where impeccable style, supernatural beauty, and otherworldly serenity coincide. Tucked away from the busy beaches of Tulum's hotel zone, Ixchel offers coveted access to a wide range of archaeological sites and eco-tourism attractions.

The estate's sleek, clean-cut, and minimalist sensibilities are courtesy of acclaimed architect Alberto Schutte. Opening up fully to its majestic jungle surroundings, Casa Ixchel sets forth an uncanny ambiance of harmony, power, and zen contemplation. Fully automated with the highest standards of 21st-century eco-friendly philosophy, this marvelous estate envisions unfettered luxury in congruence with mother nature. The home's serene pared-down spaces resonate with a Zen sensibility, fully powered by the elements, channeling solar and wind energy. Oversized openings and sliding glass doors support a oneness with the outdoors, with a chic open concept floor plan, perpetually wafted by the refreshing ocean breeze and serenaded by exotic bird calls. Stately common areas abound with pared-down sophistication while gorgeous off-white tones and chic wicker accents imbue the space with carefree elegance. Vaulted ceilings are garnished with exposed beams enhancing a unique sense of space and verticality. Six exceptional ensuite bedrooms are perfected in the art of bohemian beach luxury living, accomodating twelve guests in utmost comfort, style, and discretion.

A serene outdoor sanctuary enclosed by lush palm groves, verdant lawns, and a glamorous focal swimming pool ideal for beating the afternoon heat. An extensive veranda reveals a versatile outdoor living space beckoning socialization, spontaneity, and entertaining. Round off perfect coastal evenings in the therapeutic waters of the jacuzzi before a dazzling night sky.

TULUM

ZONA HOTELERA

The laid-back beach town of Tulum has established itself as one of the planet's principal beach destinations and with good reason. Cliffs, ruins, neon water, and white sand all come together in a storybook vision. Visiting in early December or May are both good options, since it's warm and sunny, but crowds are minimal. Gone are the days when Tulum's visitors could expect rustic bungalows without electricity. In less than a decade, the town has remade itself into a very "in" spot frequented by celebrities and socialites. Tulum is now replete with world-class restaurants, high-end boutiques and accommodations. The most ideal way to spend an upscale vacation is in the best villas in Tulum offered by LVH Global.
