CORAL HOUSE

LEEWARD, TURKS AND CAICOS

Coral House is a masterwork of Caribbean colonial-style architecture perched along the famed sands of Grace Bay Beach. This regal beachfront estate offers the pinnacle of tropical island luxury, assuring guests the ultimate discretion and serenity. Coral House enjoys quick access to fine dining establishments, a mere ten to fifteen-minute drive away fo a comprehensive Turks and Caicos luxury experience.

Gorgeous interiors abound with high culture pomp, regal arched french windows, and doorways leading to aesthetically immaculate seating areas. Pristine white interiors are inundated with natural light and technicolor from the outdoors, animating classically beautiful decor and furnishings. Light and airy yet weighted with aristocratic prestige, gorgeous period credenzas and console tables accompany the great room's luxuriant upholstery. Warm rattan accents impart an uncanny Island romanticism, while a formal dining pavilion dazzles with imperial elegance in stone-clad interiors. A serene palette of beige, cream, and wood accents invoke the pristine white sands, a few barefoot steps away. Seven exceptional ensuite bedrooms accommodate fourteen guests in utmost comfort, discretion, and style. Dreamy pastel tones, ornate accent furnishings, vaulted ceiling breeziness define the private suites. Six suites boast dazzling water views, while others enjoy quick access to the gorgeous outdoor deck.

Coral House offers extraordinary outdoors replete with ample deck spaces and plenty of shaded and unshaded areas outfitted for outdoor entertaining. A dining rotunda and cabana overlook breathtaking sea vistas, while a tranquil internal courtyard teems with jungle foliage. A chic infinity pool is splayed directly before the beachy coast, its waters merging seamlessly with the mesmerizing blue horizon.

TURKS AND CAICOS

LEEWARD

Turks and Caicos are a British Overseas
Territory made up of eight major islands and dozens of smaller cays in the tropical Atlantic, southeast of the Bahamas. Known for its turquoise waters and powder-soft sand, the archipelago is home to some of the best beaches in the world. On Providenciales—locally known as Provo—you'll find Grace Bay Beach, upscale restaurants, and luxury boutiques. At the same time, Grand Turk offers world-class wall diving and glimpses into the island's colonial past.
