EMERALD PAVILION

LEEWARD, TURKS AND CAICOS

Emerald Pavilion is a veritable jewel of Grace Bay, flaunting immaculate design, otherworldly serenity, and some of the most sublime stretches of private sands. Prestigiously perched near Leeward Marina, guests may delight at the prospect of adventure on the high seas, while resort-like exteriors span an acre of prime Bay frontage. Accommodating everything from intimate getaways to lavish celebrations, Emerald Pavilion leaves no guest Indifferent.

Interiors present an aesthetic triumph of minimalist chic refinement and beachy bohemian panache. Radiant whitewashed interiors dazzle against the technicolor tropical backdrop of the outdoors, while a smattering of earthy textures and natural wood details impart a delectable rusticism. Driftwood and stump console tables offer the ultimate compliment to the pristine contemporary sectionals, shimmering stone floors popping against a sand-toned native stone accent wall. A gorgeous vacillation between sleek surfaces and organic textures defines this streamlined and chic home. Emerald Pavilion benefits from a great stature with double-height ceilings and oversized windows, enhancing the home's uncluttered, airy and breezy sensibilities. This estate offers five sumptuous en-suite bedrooms, accomodating twelve guests in utmost comfort, discretion, and luxury. The suites offer king-sized bedding, spa-inspired baths, and private terrace and outdoor access. Top-notch amenities include a dreamy home theater and well-equipped gym, covering the bases from leisure to recreation.

Between the ample deck space balconies, the home's exteriors leave no shortage of vantage points unexplored for soaking in the mesmerizing sea horizon. The property includes a 1,600 sq ft heated, sunken seating, firepit, plunge pool, and pergola. Towering palms chaperone guests to a gorgeous stretch of coastline, rounding off an estate perfected in the art of Turks and Caicos luxury living.

TURKS AND CAICOS

LEEWARD

Turks and Caicos is an archipelago of eight major islands and many small cays in the tropical Atlantic Ocean, southeast of the Bahamas. Its stunning blue waters and pristine white sand give the island some of the world's most amazing beaches. The Turks and Caicos is a true island destination. Its residents come from all over the world and from all walks of life. Yet, the island is a proud British Overseas Territory with its own unique heritage and culture. Travelers will also experience an immaculate marine environment, friendly people, and fine dining. The gateway island of Providenciales, known as Provo, is home to expansive Grace Bay Beach, with high-end shops and restaurants. Scuba-diving sites include a 14-mile barrier reef on Provo's north shore and a dramatic 2,134-meter underwater wall off Grand Turk Island. Stay for the natural bounties or embark on a more luxuriant adventure in the far-flung depths of the turquoise waters on a private island.
