VILLA SALACIA

LEEWARD, TURKS AND CAICOS

Villa Salacia is a magnificent oceanfront estate set along the powdery white sands of Grace Bay, flaunting boundless views over the crystalline turquoise waters of Providenciales. Soaring palms, manicured lawns and explosive bougainvillea curate a private tropical paradise on the tranquil Leeward stretch, just moments from the island's finest restaurants and boutiques. Tailor-made for the most discerning clientele, this Turks and Caicos luxury vacation rental embodies barefoot opulence at its most extravagant.

Interiors present a breezy marriage of Bahamian plantation charm and contemporary coastal refinement, with soaring white trusses, louvered windows and sun-washed pastels. The great room invites lingering on plush cream sofas around a sculptural driftwood coffee table, while the formal dining room welcomes a crowd beside sweeping sea views. A marble kitchen island with walnut accents and a sunny breakfast nook crowned by a starburst chandelier set the scene for leisurely island mornings. Spanning 9,500 square feet, the estate offers nine bedrooms accommodating eighteen guests in utmost comfort and discretion, each dressed in soft seafoam, blush or sky-blue hues. Spa-like bathrooms showcase freestanding soaking tubs and shimmering mother-of-pearl tile. A gym, sauna, steam room and massage room form a private wellness retreat, while a media room, a game room with shuffleboard and a pool table, and wine storage keep every generation entertained.

Villa Salacia comes to its fullest expression outdoors, where a sprawling heated pool cascades past a mosaic-tiled hot tub to a swim-up bar beneath a shaded cabana. An outdoor kitchen with a pizza oven and BBQ fuels long al fresco feasts, while a pickleball and half basketball court invites friendly competition. As the sun sets over Grace Bay, guests gather around the lawnside fire pit just steps from the sand.
