CASTELLO DEL MONSIGNORE

FLORENCE, TUSCANY

Castello del Monsignore is an enchanting estate standing amongst Italy's most immaculate historic properties. A sublime piece of 16th-century Renaissance heritage, this manor was adjacent to the rule of the Medicis. Authentically Tuscan, this Italianate beauty commands twenty acres of dive parklands, complete with a truffle ground, lemon house, vegetable garden, and consecrated chapel.

Glorious interiors color a noble Florentine heritage with contemporary sensibilities. The stunningly appointed and renovated Castello del Monsignore presents a gorgeous vision of timeless classicism, at once fresh and modern yet regal and aristocratic. Chic designer furnishings flaunt traditional shapes and decadent upholstery, blending seamlessly with original Renaissance components. Light custard walls present a masterclass of understated elegance, with inviting parlors and common areas conjoined by spacious corridors and opulent suites. Gorgeous crown moldings and sculpted ceilings weave an unparalleled sense of airiness across the lustrous interiors. Traditional paneling, elegant sconce lighting, and understated wallpapers curate a warm, nocturnal ambiance for most refined dining affairs. A spellbinding provincial-styled Cuccina is reflective of an estate where gastronomic indulgence and epicurean exploration are sacrosanct. Ten bedrooms are the definition of exclusivity and comfort, discretion, and autonomy across the estate's sprawling two stories. Castello's amenities are set to dazzle. Enjoy a game of billiards in the games room, break some sweat in the fully equipped gym, and treat yourself to a blissful spa, sauna, and hammam rituals.

A pastoral paradise unlike any other, guests may savor the tranquility and glory of the home's beautiful parklands comprising sequoias, Ginkgo Biloba, and ancient Lebanese cedars. A private, heated saltwater pool built from the finest pietra serena sandstone is the ultimate lounge space for a fine Tuscan red. Castello del Monsignore is a revered luxury vacation estate that leaves no guests impervious to its charms.
