VILLA ALBA

MONTALCINO, TUSCANY

Villa Alba is a gorgeous traditional stone farmhouse that has been lovingly transformed into an enchanting pastoral refuge. Embraced by fragrant old-growth woodlands, this exquisite hilltop Villa commands revered vistas over the splendor of Val d'Orcia. Brimming with historical intrigue and rural romanticism, Villa Alba offers the ultimate portal for discovering the magic and the eternal elegance of Tuscan living.

Exemplary interiors fuse country home romanticism with a delectable sense of Italianicity. Terracotta floors, sunbleached wood-paneled ceilings, and arched French doors curate beautiful common spaces teeming with old-world prestige. Gorgeous centuries Tuscan fireplace grounds the living room in an illustrious local history, while handcrafted furnishings and designer fabrics speak to the mastery of local artisans. An exemplary provincial kitchen boasts lovely classic cabinetry, ample counter spaces, and seamlessly integrated top-of-the-line kitchen appliances, setting the scene for fantastic gastronomic experiences. The ultimate Cucina awaits, where each bite is savored with zeal, and epicurean exploration is sacrosanct. Homey, inviting with a delectable aristocratic inflection, Villa Alba hits all the right notes in aesthetically immaculate interiors guaranteed to seduce the aesthete and luxury traveler alike. Three sumptuous ensuite bedrooms prioritize comfort and style, accommodating six guests. The third ensuite belongs to the intimate guest house that overlooks an especially romantic outdoor seating area.

The pergola-covered terrace is splayed before fragrant gardens and a private outdoor heated swimming pool. Villa Alba, as part of the Rosewood Castiglion del Bosco Estate, boasts access to two restaurants, a fitness spa complex, tennis courts, and a private golf course. An onsite chapel overlooking Montalcino evokes the divine serenity of Tuscany, rounding off an exemplary luxury vacation home.
