VILLA CASTELLO

MONTALCINO, TUSCANY

Villa Castello is a glorious stone country estate brimming with pastoral romanticism and authenticity. Historical intrigue, extraordinary style, and natural majesty define this majestic property perched in idyllic environs. Magnificent 360-degree Val d'Orcia views abound from Castello's hilltop perch, incorporating the ruins of a nearby medieval castle.

Exquisite interiors present a stunning fusion of eternal country home charm and old-European refinement. Lovingly updated with modern amenities while retaining the integrity of the farm estate, Villa Castello delivers familiarity and comfort with a delectable aristocratic inflection. Serene custard, olive, and burgundy tones evoke the natural bounties of this sun-kissed region while harnessing natural light in stunning and unexpected ways. Homey and refined seating arrangements are doused with timeless muted tones and nostalgic patterning. A series of 19th-century romanticist landscape pieces capturing the vacation rental's eternal bucolic spirit. Arched swinging doors and exposed beam ceilings define the home, while the Cucina, adorned with local tiling and traditional cabinetry, beckons fantastic dining experiences. Top-of-the-line appliances are seamlessly integrated into the space. Ample countertops curate a lovely workspace for the culinary master set to acquaint guests with the magic of Tuscan cuisine. Three sumptuous sleeping ensuite bedrooms are spread across the second and third floors, offering six guests the utmost comfort and discretion.

A romantic pergola-shaded alfresco space features an authentic wood-fired pizza oven perched before picture-perfect vistas of the Sienese landscape. The distinguished property belongs to the Rosewood Castiglione del Bosco Estate, lauded for its exemplary recreation options, restaurants, and amenities, perfectly embedded in wine country.
