VILLA DIANA

SIENA, TUSCANY

Villa Diana is situated on a hilltop with 360-degree views, a row of cypress trees guide you up to the five acres of beautifully landscaped property. Stunning views of fertile agricultural land, the towers of Siena, and the nearby town of Monteroni de Arbia will captivate and thrill you.

The villa provides both private and shared living spaces allowing guests opportunities to come together and share or retreat and relax. It features three distinct living areas, one of the main levels, one on the upper level and one in the barn and together these comprise six bedrooms. Each area also includes individual living rooms to unwind in. Each of the three master bedrooms and three king bed guest suites includes modern en-suites, which allows this property to comfortably accommodate a large family or group retreats. The generous kitchen, original forno oven, and traditional Tuscan fireplace make this farmhouse ideal for culinary adventures.

The property offers a large heated infinity swimming pool and a hot tub (heated all year), together with a pool house with sauna and workout facility. Guests will also enjoy several al-fresco dining areas.
