CHALET MIA

VAL D'ISERE, VAL D'ISERE

Villa Chalet Mia is an exceptional alpine retreat set at the foot of the slopes in Val d'Isere, where a refined mountain atmosphere meets breathtaking natural beauty. Surrounded by snow-covered peaks and pristine landscapes, the chalet enjoys a privileged ski-in location, placing it at the heart of one of the Alps' most prestigious destinations. The ever-changing scenery, from crisp sunlit mornings to serene twilight horizons, creates an enchanting backdrop that elevates every moment spent in this remarkable setting.

The interior reveals a seamless fusion of traditional materials and contemporary sophistication, where wood and stone harmonize with clean architectural lines. The living room area embodies luxurious living, offering an inviting yet elegant space centered around a fireplace, ideal for quiet evenings after a day on the slopes. Expansive volumes and refined finishes enhance the sense of comfort and exclusivity throughout. The fully equipped kitchen complements the chalet's refined ambiance, designed for both functionality and understated elegance. The property accommodates up to ten guests across five beautifully appointed bedrooms, each crafted to provide privacy and tranquility.

Extending beyond its interiors, Chalet Mia offers a serene wellness experience and thoughtfully designed outdoor spaces. A private indoor pool provides a secluded sanctuary for relaxation, while subtle architectural elements frame the surrounding alpine views. The chalet's exterior reflects a perfect balance between authenticity and modernity, blending effortlessly into its mountain environment. With discreet daily service ensuring seamless comfort, this 450m² residence represents a rare combination of sophistication, intimacy, and immersive alpine living—an extraordinary escape defined by elegance and unforgettable surroundings.
