CHALET MAKINI

CENTER, VERBIER

Chalet Makini is a magnificent ski-in, ski-out Alpine home nestled on the banks of a pond in the exclusive Hameau development. An impenetrable oasis of calm awaits, peering into the purest expression of the Swiss Alps' natural beauty. A short distance from the enchanting village culture of Verbier, Chalet Makini is tuned to the pinnacle of high-altitude luxury.

Spellbinding interiors are a gorgeous fusion of contemporary chic elegance and timeless snowed-in romanticism. Ultra plush designer furnishings and low-profile console elements impart a cosmopolitan flavor to alluring seating arrangements whose scintillating silver throws impart a dash of Tinseltown glam. Guests are immersed in a world of gorgeous timber grains, organic textures, and amber-hued woods, embracing the free-flowing space in a sensation of warmth and comfort. Chalet Makini abounds in sumptuous mountain romanticism between Modern furniture and art, glittering chandeliers, and the finest textiles and materials grace the exquisite seating arrangements. Natural stone and antique pieces are the ultimate accompaniment to a modern layout and construction, with LED strips and modern underscoring lovely structural finishes. Pelts and furs grace stunning seating arrangements, beckoning tender moments with family during snowbound days. Up to eleven guests are housed in five impressive and individually designed bedrooms, all with en-suite facilities. The estate boasts a private spa and a short stroll from the main Chalet, a haven for rejuvenation. Enjoy an intimate massage and a fine poolside cocktail. In addition to the spa facilities, this building also boasts a traditional fondue and raclette room.

Chalet Makini boasts extensive balconies and terraces where guests can enjoy breathtaking mountain views. Seize the ethereal silence of a dawn ski run, clicking and weaving past a meandering trail to the Hameau village leading directly to the Le Rouge Tele ski.

VERBIER

CENTER

Verbier tops the list of Switzerland's must-visit mountain resorts, between its spellbinding nature, raucous apres culture, and legendary off-piste skiing for the weathered athlete. This picturesque Village in the Valais Canton, smattered with traditional South-facing lodges, is defined by a tenacious and youthful spirit. A wide selection of intermediate slopes and a vibrant restaurant scene attract the most daring athletes and discerning gourmands. From Michelin-starred restos to traditional lodges, urbane sun decks, and cocktail bars, this small Swiss Village offers a punch that is anything but. Gear up for an adventure or bask in the vitamin D-drenched majesty of the Swiss Alps, Verbier offers an unmatched playground for personally tailored luxury experiences.
